United Group Limited changes name to UGL Limited

Sydney: United Group Limited (ASX:UGL) today announced that it has changed its name to UGL Limited, following shareholder approval at the company's Annual General Meeting on 22 October 2009.

UGL Managing Director and CEO Richard Leupen said, "The renaming of the company to a single recognised umbrella brand is important for a business which incorporates so many well known but diversified trading entities – assembled through an aggressive growth and acquisition strategy these past ten years.

"This is a time for consolidation and placing the company on a solid foundation for the future. That includes establishing a single recognised brand for UGL activities across the globe – recognised for integrity, safety, dependability and innovation as well as enhancing the communities within which we live.

"Our ability to continue to grow in tough economic times reflects our ongoing focus on developing long-term partnerships with our clients, our access to the world's best technology and our market-leading position in each of our sectors.

"To continue this growth, it was important for us to develop a single core brand across all our markets, while unifying our multi-national operations under one banner. Many of our clients already know us as UGL, and soon this will be our recognised brand across the world. We are excited by the challenges ahead and what our new name represents. The UGL brand will grow to represent all that UGL strives to be and to achieve wherever our 42,000 people trade across the globe."

UGL will trade through its subsidiary names UGL Infrastructure, UGL Rail, UGL Resources, UGL Services, UGL Unicco, UGL Equis and UGL Premas – turning over more than 4.5 billion dollars and trading with a permanent presence in 14 countries.
