UGL signs property services joint venture in the State of Qatar

Sydney: UGL Limited (ASX: UGL) today announced that it has signed an integrated facilities management and property services joint venture (JV) agreement in the State of Qatar with Aspire Katara Investment Company ("AKI") and Qatar Olympic Committee ("QOC").

The scope of the JV will focus on providing integrated facilities management services to government and private sector clients in the State of Qatar and is expected to commence operations in Q1 2012 following incorporation.

UGL's Managing Director and CEO, Richard Leupen, said: "UGL has an established presence in the State of Qatar having provided integrated facilities management and property services in the region since 2007. Through this JV, UGL is well positioned to benefit from one of the fastest growing economies in the world where the investment in property and infrastructure assets is forecast to reach US$100 billion over the next five years."

Vice Chairman of AKI, Mr. Hilal Al Kuwari said: "We are delighted to be partnering with the Qatar Olympic Committee and UGL in this joint venture. The combined skills of all shareholders will ensure we deliver the best outcome for Qatar and our clients."

H.E. Sheikh Saoud Bin Abdul Rahman Al Thani, QOC Secretary General said: "This joint venture will play an important role in supporting Qatar's 2030 vision of being a global centre of sporting excellence and we look forward to working with AKI and UGL in this venture."
